COMPANY OVERVIEW

With 22 years experience in international arts production, BRM has been providing holistic logistics and management support to construction scale art installations, festivals, and placemaking ventures since 2016. We empower our partners to ask “What if...?” by supporting them throughout all phases of their project including advance, pre-production, installation, research and development, ongoing support throughout the duration of the project, ambassadorship, maintenance, and final deinstallation. BRM will at all times uphold the spirit and core values of our partners as well as our own in a combined effort to produce their project to our highest standards with inspiration, intention, integrity, dedication, and excellence.
